Mississippi

a citizen and resident of Jones County, Mississippi
T. R. Holloman and Riley Holloman, and resident
Citizens of Perry County, Mississippi, Defendants.

Complainant respectfully shows to the Court:

That Complainant is the true and lawful owner in fee simple of those certain tracts or parcels of land situated in the County of Perry and State of Mississippi, described as the West 1/2 of North East quarter and South East 1/4 of North East 1/4 of Section 6, Township 5 N. Range 10 West, and Complainant deraigns his title to said lands as follows:

1st:-

That said lands among other lands, were donated by the government of the United States to the State of Mississippi by act of congress approved Sept. 28th. 1850, and that thereafter a patent was issued by the United States to the State of Mississippi, therefor

2nd: -

That thereafter, to-wit, on the 5th. day of Dec.
1866, the State of Mississippi, acting pursuant to existing laws, sold said land to J. P. Carter, and issued

3rd:-

That thereafter, to-wit, and on the 24th. day of June, 1870, the said J. P. Carter who was joined therein by his wife M. C. Carter, by their deed of that date and for the consideration therein named, conveyed said lands to James S. Byrd.

4th:-

That the said James S. Byrd died as complainant is informed, during the year 1871, intestate, leaving as his sole and only heirs at law his widow Elizabeth Byrd, who thereafter married a man by the name of Yelverton, and that thereafter, to-wit:- on the 19th. day of June, 1877, the said Elizabeth Yelverton, who was joined therein by her husband E. H. Yelverton, conveyed whatever right, title or interest was vested in her under the ~~xxxx~~ statute of descents and distributions of the State of Mississippi, as the widow of said James Byrd, to W. W. Byrd, Julia Byrd, and Mahala Thompson, the children and heirs at law of said James S. Byrd.

5th:-

That thereafter, to-wit, about the year 1880, the said W. W. Byrd and Julia Byrd, conveyed their interest in the above described tract of land to the said Mahala Thompson, which deed has been lost or destroyed and the record thereof has been destroyed, and same can not now be produced, but if this allegation be denied complainant will prove the existence of such deed, in case its existence should become important in this case.

7th:-

That thereafter, and on to-wit, the 13th. day of February, 1883, the said High M. McCallum by his deed of that date and for the consideration therein named, conveyed the said lands to the Complainant J. Wyatt Griffin.

8th:-

That thereafter and on the 15th. day of June, 1905, and the 10th. day of July, 1905, and the 11th. day of July, 1905, the said Julia Byrd, whi in the meantime had married a man by the name of Ramsay, and whose name on the date last aforesaid was Julia Ramsay, Mahala E. Thompson and W. W. Byrd, by their several deeds of the date last aforesaid, and for the purpose of evidencing the last deed from said other heirs to said Mahala Thompson aforesaid, conveyed their several interests as heirs at law of said James S. Byrd, to the Complainant. And Complainant avers that under the facts aforesaid, that he is now, has been since 1883 ~~as~~ aforesaid, the owner in fee simple ~~from~~ the tract or parcel of land aforesaid.

That although the said defendants have no interest in said land, yet they are asserting some kind of interest therein, and have from time to time executed deeds of trust, or mortgages upon said land to S. J. Johnson & Co., which have had the effect of clouding the title of Complainant, that complainant does not know the nature or character of that claim or title if any held by said defendants to said land, nor is there anything of record upon which such title can be ascertained or determined, but he avers that whatever claim or interest they assert in said land, is simply a cloud upon the rightful title of ~~from~~ this complainant as aforesaid, and that such assertion and claim by the said parties is having the effect of damaging and injuring this complainant as the owner of said land, and he is advised that he is entitled to have the claim or cloud so asserted by the Complainant aforesaid, cancelled.

Jean Strickland
3214 Pascagoula St.
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39567

August 14, 1993
Dear Mrs. Strickland,

Thank you for your letter concerning the discrepancies in Darlie Ann's children's marriages. I had acquired some of my information from a book in the Clayton Family Library that had documented Riley Holliman's first wife as Miranda Wilson and second wife as a Mattie. My Aunt who has been researching for quite sometime, verified that your information is accurate. His first wife was Miranda Tucker and the second wife was Martha (Mattie) Wilson. My Aunt (Francis Holliman Harris and my Mother Marie Holliman Short her sister), grew up in Perry County. My Aunt and Mother both knew Riley's second wife and called her Aunt Mattie.

The information on Thomas B. is a mystery. My Aunt remembers an Uncle Thomas married to Fannie Purvis Prine. However, she always thought that was the first Thomas. The Thomas B. is shown on the 1880 census living with David Holliman shown as head of household and Darlie Ann listed as mother. Thomas B. is listed as a "nephew" to the head of household. I am not sure if Thomas B. is a younger brother or not. I would also find it strange that Darlie Ann would name her child after her husband (and the fact she already had a son named Thomas) when he was not the father. Since he is listed as a nephew on the census, could he be an illegitimate child from one of the siblings and was named after his grandfather Thomas? My Aunt said she remembers the farmhand as being named Forehand from her mother and Grandmother Holliman's (Mary West, Jacob's wife) conversations. My Mother however, says she's not sure and that Forsyth sounds familiar. Unfortunately, since he has not been found on any records so far it is hard to know definitely.

My Aunt and my Mother do remember it always being discussed how Jacob and Francis did not look like the rest of the Hollimans. My mother said when they got older, their mother told them the story of Darlie Ann and how they really were not Hollimans. (Unfortunately, Mother can't remember for sure the farm hand's name, but remembers the story). To be for sure, I am going to try to find when Thomas Holliman (Darlie Ann's husband) died. That would verify if in fact he was or was not their father. So far, I have not had much luck finding when he died.

The cemetery record books available at the Clayton Family Library do not have him or Darlie Ann listed.

I am sorry to say that I can't provide you with concrete information since most of it comes through second hand family knowledge. I would love any information you come across and especially if you remember who the great grand daughter of Darlie Ann's was. I am a great, great grand daughter of Darlie Ann's. She is a most interesting character so far. The 1870 census is very interesting because it shows Darlie Ann as head of household and all the children and a 52 year old Mulatto woman residing there also. That census did not show the relation to head of household. I wonder if she was a boarder which helped Darlie Ann out financially since she did not have a husband. Feel free to give out my address and phone number to anyone interested in this family.

For your records, I have attached the census report for 1880 showing Thomas B. as a nephew and how the Hollimans are traced to me. I have also typed out the 1870 census (at the time I got it the film copiers had closed so I just wrote it out) showing Darlie Ann's household.

On to another family, I wanted to thank you for sending me the soundex on Neil Short for 1910. I found him with my great grandmother living in Jefferson Davis County. He has been a mystery and hard to find any documentation on. All of the Short's on my dad's side are supposedly from Covington County. I have had trouble finding Neil and Sylvester (McRaney) Short anywhere until you sent that to me. I went immediately to the Clayton Library and pulled the census. The baffling part is, they are not found anywhere on the 1900 census. There is a Neil Short in Covington County the same age as my great grandfather with a totally different family. The 1910 census showed him and Sylvester married for several years and they had several children born in the 1890s. The library has the 1900 soundex for Mississippi and I cannot find them together. I keep wondering if he managed two families since the Neil in 1900 (with different wife and children) happens to be the same age as the Neil from 1910. If you run across any information on Neil Short or Sylvester McRaney Short I would appreciate anything you could send. I have looked through Covington County Cemetery record books and cannot find either one of their death dates. It is also strange that my grandfather in 1920 was 17 years old and lived with his older brother Jim and not with his parents. I had paid for that information through a service when I first started researching and I did not know where or how to begin. I can't imagine both of them dying before 1920. If you come across any death dates, please let me know so I can order their death certificates.

Once again, I wish I had more facts on the Hollimans. If I come across any further information I will send it to you.

Thank you once again for taking the time to help in my research. You have really given me some great information and I appreciate your time. With both my parents and generations before being from Mississippi, I can't always find information easily here. I hope you enjoyed the article I sent you that was in the Houston Chronicle some weeks back. The Clayton Family Library is really trying to get more support and interest in genealogy and has had articles in the paper from time to time. I will send you anymore I come across if you are interested.

Thank you again!

Hello Holliman Researchers!

(This info covers all spellings!)

Anyone researching this surname, of all spellings, and especially from The South, pls. get in touch.... the only comprehensive Holliman book ("The Hollyman Family", by George A. Holleman, pub. 1952), is 350 pp. long and went out of print many yrs ago, so only older members of families had copies. The book starts with CHRISTOPHER HOLLYMAN (of Engl), who d. I of W Co.,VA in 1692, and his wife Mary, and lists their several children, spouses, children, and then continues thru-out the book showing lines of descent from each of these children.... down to and including my grandmother's line (from GA). My Holliman line was from Christopher & Mary in the 1600's in VA, then on to NC for a while, then on to GA. Many lines stayed in VA or NC, others to GA, some to other states. Many other states and lines are represented in the book. There are literally thousands of names in this book, with a full index in back. The book was updated (in 1989, with names of people who submitted group sheets, etc.), and has been reprinted and is available.

Spellings in the book include HOLLYMAN, HOLLIMAN, HOLLOWMAN, HOLLOWMON, HOLLEMAN, etc!

There's a section on Holliman Slaves, Wills, Holliman's in England, etc.... alot of great info!

If you are interested in the book, let me know and I'll send info where to write, or if you want me to look up a name or two, will be glad to.

My Hollyman line went to Wilkes Co.,NC. then on to

EXPLANATION OF NUMBERING SYSTEM

After searching dozens of genealogical records and histories for a logical numbering system whereby a descendant could be readily identified in his proper place, the writer has developed his own. This system is very simple when understood.

Christopher Hollyman is designated as the first generation and each succeeding generation by the next higher number. This number is first. Christopher's four sons are designated by the letters A, B, C, and D. The descendants of each carry this letter in their number. The number following is the number of the particular descendant. Thus, 9A160 is the 160th descendant in the ninth generation from Christopher through Thomas.

THE HOLLYMAN FAMILY

THE HOLLYMAN NAME

The origin of the family name - Hollyman - can be based on several suppositions, and it is our purpose in this chapter to acquaint the reader with these several bases whereon he may make his own deductions.

British Family Names by Barbour lists Hollyman, Hollemann, Holloman, and Holeyman as being of Dutch and Flemish origin and adds that it is a personal name meaning "Hill Protector". (See chapter on Dutch Families.)

History of British Surnames states that the name is derived from Holy Man. In this connection we might add that John Hollyman, D.D. 1495-1558 was the Bishop of Bristol, and a native of Ceddington. He was listed as a scholar of St. Mary Winton College, Hampshire; B.A. July 3, 1514; M.A. June 1518; a Fellow of New College, Oxford University 1510-1526. He opposed the divorces of Henry VIII and had to flee to France to save his head. He is buried in the Chancel of Hanborough Church. That he left sons is unknown as no record of his family can be found.

It is quite possible that the name Hollyman could be from the word or name Holy Man for when surnames were chosen the occupation, the father's name, or the home town were often taken.

Patronomica Britannica states that the name Holeman means a whole man, a man of sterling mettle. Whole was spelled without the "W" in medieval England.

The writer favors the theory that the original Hollyman in England was an inhabitant of the Village of Hollym, in Holderness, Yorkshire. The Frisian form of "Ham" is "Um". Holderness is the only part of England where this form occurs. Here we find the village names: Arg-um; News-om; Holl-ym; Arr-um; etc. Ham signifies an enclosure, that which hems in, a meaning not very different from that of "ton" or "worth". These words are expressive of the feeling of reverence for private right but "Ham" involves a notion more mystical, more holy. It expresses that feeling of the sanctity of the family bond, it is the home, the one secret and holy place.

The names of three men have been found in the records of Hollym, either of whom could be the originator of our family. A

Thomas de Hollym, a mercator, Freeman of York, 1352; Willielmus (William) de Hollym, mercer, 1360; and William Hollym, a clerk of Symondesborough, Dorset, Yorks, 1395.

Our progenitor could have been a resident of Hollym, and when surnames became essential it would have been logical that he, being a Hollym - man, contract that name into our own Hollyman. Too, the only record found connecting the American Hollymans to England is the administration of the estate of a Mary Gray, Dec. 28, 1663, and signed by Christopher Hollyman as security "for the use of her son, Walter Gray in ye county of Dorset in England".

As our records of a thousand or more Hollyman descendants in England before 1650 does not have any person bearing a name of similar spelling prior to 1400, and as these records are of all sections of England and Scotland, it is most reasonable to assume that from Hollym the sons of these men went out to make their homes throughout the Isles. It is reasonable also that a touch of individuality prompted some of them to make slight changes in the spelling of the name as is so evident among the American families. Here, the direct descendants of Christopher are known as Holleman, Holloman, Holliman, Hollyman, Hollomon, Holoman, etc.

Marshall's Genealogists Guide lists the name Holliman during the Visitation of Durham in 1615. This means that there were heads of this family continuously for over 100 years. A search of several dozens of volumes of Durham marriage, birth and death records however failed to reveal any person of that name. Incidentally, the Guide specifies that there were no arms issued.

As an added thought, in Drainer Parish, Scotland, there is a cave chapel on Holyman Head, called Gerardin's Cave, said to be the abode of a hermit. This hardly has any bearing on Hollyman history, however.

THE HOLLYMAN FAMILY

CHARACTER AND CHARACTERISTICS

Of the thousands of descendants of Christopher now living in America, the writer has unfortunately had the opportunity of meeting and knowing only a small percentage. Those he has met however all seem to bear the same inherent characteristics as the others whom he has known throughout his life.

To best summarize the qualities that seem innate with all Hollymans I would like to quote from a letter written on Aug. 9, 1942 to me by an old man, John G. Holleman of Blytheville, Ark. He writes, "Those (Hollemans) I have known - none are wealthy, but up to now I can't remember of any being paupers. No criminals. Most of them try to be honest, and above all very friendly with all whom they meet - kind fathers and mothers, but very quick to become angry - will fight if necessary to defend whatever they term right - however quick to be in a good humor with the worst foe after having won or lost a victory - great women-lovers - most of them have large families". Unfortunately when I last wrote Mr. Holleman a year ago the letter was returned to me marked "Unknown". On my last trip through Blytheville I made inquiry about him but could not find him. I assume he has passed away. I regret too that I was unable to connect his family to mine.

So many of my correspondents write of their ancestors and of the fine qualities that seem to go with the blood that I wish I could write a long chapter on this one subject and quote them all. I will however quote only one line from a fine old lady in McIntyre, Ga. who married James Edward Holliman. She wrote, "I have never seen a dishonest Holliman". That sentence alone conveys all that is commendable, for a person who is honest should never do anything that could be called a little "Shady".

Since starting work on this book I have contacted and spoken to hundreds of people; checked thousands of courts records; entries, and minutes; checked the records of individuals, families, etc. yet I can honestly say that I have found only a single entry noted "non compus mentes" and on investigation found that this person was an old man in his dotage. I have not read a single record of insanity, crime, dishonesty, or anything not completely creditable. Of this I am very proud. There is that entry on page 11 that William Holleman was called "Billy Cow" as he was supposed to have stolen a cow. Too, several have written me facetiously, "There are monkeys down here you wouldn't enjoy seeing hanging from your tree".

The family basically is Protestant though there are a few instances where descendants have married into the Catholic religion. There are quite a few Methodist and Baptist ministers throughout the lines. A large part of the male descendants are members of the Masonic Order.

It is almost impossible to pin down certain physical characteristics of any one family, particularly one as old as ours due to the intermingling of other bloods throughout the different generations. Sometimes the characteristics of the mothers are more predominant in the offspring which through the ages does make a lot of changes. I have noted in my own particular family certain traits among cousins that are identifiable in other families remotely connected to mine.

These include a stature of about five feet, nine inches, a stocky build, ruddy complexions, and either bald or inclined to be bald, and with high round foreheads.

On the other hand, there was a group of five brothers who went to California and I am told that the shortest of these was six feet five inches tall.

So, long or short; lean or fat; the name of Hollyman has a great history behind it. Though it hasn't been written and only a few have attained fame in the eyes of the press, yet their fame and honor will live forever in the hearts of all those who proudly bear the name of Hollyman.

EARLY HOLLYMAN HISTORY

The earliest known ancestor of the several thousand persons whose names are contained in this work was Christopher Hollyman. The earliest known record of Christopher was his granting power of attorney to Thomas Pittman on June 30, 1660. On Jan. 11, 1661 he bought a tract of land from George Smith, which transaction was endorsed by Christopher and Anne, his wife. This tract was sold to Thomas Pitt on Dec. 9, 1668 and Christopher's wife was named Mary in this transaction. In October 1677 the names Christopher C. Hollyman and Chris Holliman, Jr. appear on a petition of pardon to the King during Bacon's Rebellion. Whether the original Christopher was the son of Christopher or the several court records naming two different men were those of the first Christopher who was the father of four sons including Christopher Jr. can hardly be determined.

In searching the records of landings at Jamestown, Va. we find a Xtop Holman (X is the abbreviation of Christ) landed on May 22, 1650 sponsored by John Cox. That same year a Judith Holloman landed, sponsored by Thos. Wilkinson. In 1653 a Christopher Hollman (Holleman) and two Judith Hollimans were brought to Virginia by John Sheerlock. That same year John Cox brought over Judith Holloman. In 1656 a William Hollimen was sponsored by Thomas Rolph.

An interesting entry in Surry Co. Va. Record Book 1671, P.2 states: Att a Courte houlden att Southwarke for the County Mar. y<sup>e</sup> 5th 1671... Upon complaint of Christo: Holiman itt manifestly apearinge that the Coppahunk Indians have kild two hoggs of y<sup>e</sup> sd Holiman, itt is ordered: that Capt. Pipsicoe wthin three Months make paymt unto y<sup>e</sup> sd Holiman of Six Buck & Six doe well drest Skins & in Case itt doe apeare here after that any Indian shall Kill any hogg or hogs of y<sup>e</sup> English that they shall pay for every Hog by them Kild twenty Buck skins.

Where Christopher came from or who was his father is presently unknown. A search of all the available sailing lists did not throw any light on this mystery. A check of several hundred volumes of English records; the complete records of the Virginia Company; Will Books; Deed Books; and Land Books gave no information on which to base our deductions.

As many of the early colonists came to Virginia by way of Bermuda, Barbados, and St. Christophers, it is the opinion of the writer that Christopher was born on the Island of St. Kitts (St.

Christophers) and was named for the island. A similar incident occurred when the Sea Venture was wrecked on Bermuda. A boy and a girl were born on the island and named Bermudos and Bermudas. A search of the records at both Barbados and St. Kitts failed to reveal any record of Christopher or his father.

The search of English marriage and death records reveals a number of possible persons from whom Christopher could be descended. (See page 220). There is no mention of anyone with that name nor is there any indication that any one or more of these persons came to America. To connect Christopher to any of these Hollymans would be an almost impossible task.

The Institute of American Genealogy in Chicago is trying to raise a fund whereby all the sailing lists of the European countries may be microfilmed. Perhaps when that mission is accomplished we may be able to solve this important mystery. The only other possible way would be a personal inspection of the list in each individual country which would be extremely expensive and time-taking.

Hottens Persons lists only one person, Roger Holman sailing in the sloop True Friendship from Barbados to Antigua, Dec. 4, 1679. The New England Historical and Genealogical Register in April 1885 published a list of 766 inhabitants of Barbados in 1638 who owned ten or more acres of land. In 1636 there were 6000 English inhabitants and 5680 negroes were brought there in 1645 by the Dutch. No Christopher is included in either list.

One other important fact which may have a bearing is that a Thomas Holman received a land grant of 100 acres in Martin's Hundred in James Co. Va. August 24, 1635, though no mention was made of him in the records of landings.

Until it is proved differently, we may consider it safe to assume that Christopher, either the elder or the younger, came to America in 1650, then through a friend or his sponsor, either John Cox or John Sheerlock, to bring over the other Christopher and Judith in 1653. Whence they came will have to remain a mystery until someone who has the time and the money to investigate the records at the source.

EZEKIEL HOLLIMAN

So many American Hollymans, eager to know more of their ancestors and learning of the famous history of Ezekiel Holliman and his connection with the establishment of the Baptist Church in America hastily claim descent from this noble man, but alas, Ezekiel Holliman had no sons.

William Holliman, father of Ezekiel, was born about 1550 in Tring, Hereford Co. England and died there in 1623. He married Alice who died May 26, 1590. They were the parents of William, who married Grace Neede on July 20, 1609 and died July 25, 1623; John; Phil; Jane, who married William Harding; and Ezekiel, who was born in Tring in 1587. He was baptised Jan. 1, 1587, which according to our present calendar was 1588. He married Susanna Oxton, daughter of John Fox, and had one daughter, Priscilla who married John Warner on June 5, 1637 at St. Albans Church, London.

In 1634 Ezekiel came to Dedham, Mass. and shortly thereafter moved to Salem where there are a number of records of his being fined for illegally felling trees and taking timber.

On March 16, 1639 with Roger Williams and eleven others who had founded the colony which was to become Providence, R.I. met and organized the Baptist Church in America. Quoting from the Historical Statement by Rev. Henry H. King, D.D. which is in a pamphlet given out by the First Baptist Church in Providence, - "In the absence of any scripturally baptised person in this new world, Ezekiel Holliman, one of their number, was deputed to baptise Roger Williams, and then he in turn baptised Mr. Holliman, and some ten more".

Ezekiel then married Mrs. Mary Sweet, widow of John, (some give his name as Isaac) and suffered severe criticism from the Church, which action together with the fact that Mary had gone to Providence from Salem, an illegal act in those days, both he and Mary were kicked out of the Church he had helped to found.

Ezekiel and Mary had a daughter, Renewed, whose formal name was Meribah, who married John Gereardy, who later became a privateer.

Thus Ezekiel who left no male descendants named Holliman, could not be the ancestor of any person named Hollyman. No doubt he was originally connected with the ancestor of Christopher in England but this fact has yet to be proved.

COATS OF ARMS

So many correspondents have sent me descriptions and copies of coats of arms reputed to belong to the Hollyman Family, that I feel a few words should be included on this subject.

Professional genealogists who have countless volumes of data and records at their disposal many times can and often do obtain information which can be sold to an aspiring client. Some may even offer proof that one name may often mean another as has been the case with some of the descendants listed herein.

In checking all of the records available on English Heraldry I was able to find only one reference to an arms being issued to a person of similar name and that entry bears only the name HOLEMAN with no first name or date. This arms is described as follows:

"Ermine, a fesse counter compony or an az, between three crescents gules."

This is a shield without mantle or crest, which designates the arms as being very old, with a background of ermine, denoting wealth. The fesse or center band is composed of alternate squares of gold and azure. Above the fesse are two red crescents and below the fesse is one red crescent.

In my search of hundreds of volumes of English marriage and death records I have found that the names Holeman and Hollyman are of two different families. Only rarely does someone named Hollyman change his name to Holeman or Holman, and I have never found a record of a Holeman changing his name to Hollyman.

According to English Heraldry only the oldest son has the right to bear his father's arms and this right goes down to his oldest son. The other sons may use their father's arms but modified with certain charges which would indicate their relation to their father as second son, third son, etc.

It is the writer's opinion that a coat of arms for the family of Christopher Hollyman does not exist. Those descendants who are of a different opinion may easily find out for themselves by writing to the College of Arms, or Herald's College, on Queen Victoria Street, London, Eng. where for a substantial fee the family will be looked up and if an arms exists they will so advise. I am told that for a larger fee that if no arms exists that one will be granted if the applicant will give his history as far back as is possible or can prove English ancestry.
